Lawful Basis for Processing

New Forest Sailability's Lawful Basis for Processing of the data collected from its members is as identified Article 9(2)d of the EU GDPR, "Processing of special categories of personal data", which states:

"processing is carried out in the course of its legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards by a foundation, association or any other not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim and on condition that the processing relates solely to the members or to former members of the body or to persons who have regular contact with it in connection with its purposes and that the personal data are not disclosed outside that body without the consent of the data subjects."

Lawfulness of processing

Processing shall be lawful only if and to the extent that at least the following applies:

- (a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes.

As such, the data subject's consent allows NFS to process their personal information (personal data) in a filing system for its needs in order to facilitate the efficient running and functional purpose of the club.

Definitions

'processing'

means, any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

'consent' of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her.

'personal data'

means, any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

'filing system'

means, any structured set of personal data which are accessible according to specific criteria.
